Hands Around the Lake

A Celebration for Peace and Peacemakers in Oakland and the Greater Bay Area

Season for NonViolence and the Department of Peace presents a

PEACE FESTIVAL AND PEACE WALK AROUND LAKE MERRITT

Sunday April 9th

1pm to 4pm

starting at the Lake Merritt United Methodist Church (1330 Lakeshore Ave)

1 - 2pm Peace Social: a chance to network with fellow peace pals—tea and snacks provided—tables from different peace groups will be present.

2 - 3pm - A Peace Celebration with Speakers honoring local and world peacemakers. Music will be offered by the renowned Joy Choir and Bay Area Musicians for Peace

3 - 4pm - A Peace Walk with Jes Richardson's giant Gandhi Puppet and Peace Doves will process around Lake Merritt to rededicate the Lake as a Center for Peace and Happiness - to radiate out from its shores our message for Peace to all the World. Musicians, singers, kazooers, dancers, clowns, perambulators, and peripatetics of all peaceful passions are invited to join in our celebration-procession around the Lake. Children welcome! LMNOP, The Lake Merritt Neighbors Organized for Peace, who walk for Peace every Sunday around the Lake, will be honored.
